

REHAB QUIZ

1. Which ligament of spine resists extension?
 - a) Posterior longitudinal ligament
 - b) Ligamentum flavum
 - c) Anterior longitudinal ligament
 - d) Interspinous ligament
2. Which radiographic view is used to visualize humeral head for possible Hill-Sachs lesion?
 - a) Scapular Y view
 - b) West point view
 - c) Stryker notch view
 - d) Lateral view
3. A discharge appears “tornadic” on the screen with a rate of 200Hz. The sound is best described as continuous and high frequency. What is the most likely diagnosis?
 - a) Cramp potentials
 - b) Isaac’s syndrome
 - c) Myotonia congenita
 - d) Myasthenia gravis
4. Pseudogout may be associated with:
 - a) Amyloidosis
 - b) A characteristic rash
 - c) Hyperthyroidism
 - d) Hypercalcemia
5. Which anticonvulsant requires closest monitoring of blood lines-
 - a) Phenytoin
 - b) Carbamazepin
 - c) Gabapentin
 - d) Valproic acid
6. What is Stimson technique?
 - a) Provocative maneuver to test gleno humeral instability
 - b) Gravity assisted technique to reduce anterior shoulder dislocation
 - c) Two person technique to reduce anterior shoulder dislocation
 - d) Test for inferior shoulder laxity
7. Damage to the arcuate fasciculus cause-
 - a) Transcortical motor
 - b) Transcortical sensory
 - c) Conduction
 - d) Anomic
8. Patient has an irregular, jerky tremor that is extinguished with certain hand positions. What type of tremor?
 - a) Dystonic
 - b) Parkinson’s disease
 - c) Cerebellar
 - d) Essential
9. All of the following are measures for CBT, except-
 - a) Deep breathing & Insufflation technique
 - b) Glossopharyngeal breathing
 - c) Mechanical insufflator – exsufflator (MIE)
 - d) Diaphragmatic breathing
10. Gillet’s test is considered positive if-
 - a) There is increased obliquity of the iliac wings
 - b) The PSIS on the raised leg rotates down
 - c) The PSIS on the shift leg rotates down
 - d) The PSIS on the raised leg does not rotate down

ANSWERS

Answer of December 2015

1d, 2d, 3c, 4d, 5b, 6c, 7b, 8b, 9d, 10b